FROM ZEBRA CROSSINGS TO REFORMING THE IMMIGRATION SYSTEM

Last Thursday I had an interesting chat over coffee with Peter Brierley, Assistant Director of Citizens UK and Lead Organiser of London Citizens. Founded in 1989 Citizens UK claim to be 'the UK's biggest, most diverse and most effective people powered alliance' campaigning for numerous and various causes such as zebra crossings on dangerous roads, a decent living wage and reforming the immigration system. To date, they have 600 organisations involved and 4,000 community leaders trained in building a better and fairer society. Since its foundation hundreds of campaigns have been won, a success rate they hope will continue. You may be interested to know that the very basis and core of Citizens UK are Catholic Social Teaching principles. Recently before Christmas members of the organisation met with Pope Leo in Rome. Later this month or in March I hope Peter will come and speak at the Sunday Masses. I will keep you posted. – Father Steve

ST EDMUND'S BEREAVEMENT SUPPORT

When someone we love dies, it's natural to want to talk, share memories and reflect on our loss. Family and friends may offer comfort, but sometimes those around us may not fully understand what we're going through.

The St Edmund's Bereavement Support Group is a kind, safe, and understanding space for those grieving. In a warm and welcoming environment, parishioners can meet others experiencing loss, share their feelings, and talk about practical challenges that can feel overwhelming. There is no pressure to speak – simply being among others can bring reassurance. For those who wish to share, there is always a listening ear. This supportive group is open to all, regardless of faith. We run three groups a year, meeting weekly for six weeks. A lovely quality of this group is the genuine friendship and mutual support that often grows among those who come together through shared loss.

If you would like to know more, please take a leaflet from the shelf near the Anniversary Book at the back of the Church, or email: beckenhambsg@rcaos.org.uk

Sunday 25 January 2026 Yr A

This Sunday there is a second collection for St Georges
Cathedral

DO YOU KNOW THIS MAN?

In one of the Eucharistic prayers, soon after the consecration, the priest asks our Father to accept our offering of Christ's Body and Blood 'as once you were pleased to accept the gifts of your servant Abel the just, the sacrifice of Abraham, our father in faith, and the offering of your high priest, Melchizedek, a holy sacrifice, a spotless victim.'

We all know about Abel, and we all know about Abraham, but I expect that most of us are in the same boat as a parishioner who asked recently, 'Who is Melchizedek?' The answer is that, while we really don't know much about him, what little we do know makes him a towering figure in the holy scriptures.

He lived at the time of Abraham. God had told Abraham to leave his home in Ur (in modern-day Iraq), with Lot, his nephew, and with all their followers, and he led them 400 miles away, to Canaan, and told them to settle there (Genesis 12). However, Abraham and Lot became embroiled in local wars, during which Lot was captured. Abraham attacked Lot's captors and rescued his nephew, and on his return from the campaign he met with a local ruler, Melchizedek (Genesis: 14). We are told that Melchizedek was both king of Salem (Jerusalem) and 'a priest of God the Most High', though we are not told how he came to be either: his origins are a mystery. Melchizedek gives thanks to God for Abraham's conquest of their enemies, and he bestows his own blessing on Abraham. If there is a founding-event of Judaism, Melchizedek's blessing of Abraham has a good claim to be it, for it is after this that God confirms his promises to Abraham, assuring him that he will become the father of a great people and granting him the land of Canaan.

All very interesting, we might say, but what has it got to do with the Sacrifice of the Mass? Well, we can see the answer for ourselves in the last stained glass window on the left as we face the altar here in St Edmund's. It depicts a strange-looking figure, crowned, and richly vested, and he is carrying in one hand a loaf of bread and in the other a chalice of wine. The crown is the give-away, though: this is not a Christian priest or bishop: he's Melchizedek, and, like Abraham, he dates from 2000 years before Christ: his offering of bread and wine was part of the blessing and thanksgiving service for Abraham's victory (Genesis 14:18).

The events I have just outlined took place before the birth of Isaac, so well before Abraham had that sudden transformative realisation that there is no way that a loving God would want people to persist in the practice of human sacrifice. Can it be that, at the very outset of the Abrahamic faith, which we share, we see, in a shadowy form, a prefiguring of the Mass? Abraham must not sacrifice his son, because God will sacrifice his own; Abel's sacrifice of animals to God, which would become a fundamental part of Judaism, cannot take away sins.

After his meeting with Abraham, Melchisedek disappears completely from the Old Testament, except for a single mention in Psalm 109 (110). The Psalm is addressed to the Messiah, the longed-for and long-awaited priest-king, and it contains these words: 'You are a priest forever, a priest like Melchizedek of old.' The Church sees in Melchizedek nothing less than a foretelling of the coming of the true Messiah, and of how, at Mass, all these centuries later, we will make Jesus' sacrifice truly present in our own lives. – Deacon Seán.

ST GEORGE'S CATHEDRAL
SECOND COLLECTION
25TH JANUARY

For over half a century, St George's Cathedral has been the Mother Church of the Archdiocese of Southwark, home to 175 parishes and over 50,000 Roman Catholics. For many Catholics living and working across London and the South East of England, St George's has been a beacon of light.

Today, St George's Cathedral continues to attract thousands of worshippers and visitors each year, as well as serving a lively local parish community which proudly reflects the rich cultural and ethnic diversity of South London. The Cathedral frequently hosts important Diocesan and national celebrations.

There is a rich musical tradition, maintaining a choir of boys and men, as well as a girls' choir, both of which sing at Sunday Masses and on major feasts. In many respects, St George's Cathedral serves as a spiritual home and 'beehive' for Catholic evangelisation and mission.

St George's Cathedral is entirely reliant upon the generosity of its parishioners, volunteers and the Archdiocese of Southwark to keep its doors open. It does not receive Vatican or government funding, nor has an endowment to rely on. Your support can enable the Cathedral to remain open daily to those seeking a place of peace, prayer and worship. Thank you!

SVP BECKENHAM

Our local St Vincent de Paul group (SVP) would like to thank all of those who helped out with the annual Christmas lunch held for parishioners in December. in a beautifully decorated hall. We welcomed 68 people into the hall with Christmas music in the background played by a quartet of cellists led by our own Richard. At other times we had background music by our pianist, Rose.

Guests enjoyed a 3-course lunch that was very well received. Ensuring that all dietary requirements were met was no mean task, and this was carefully executed by our kitchen team! To accompany all the food was an assortment of drinks – wines and non-alcoholic drinks.

To crown it all, 'Mini Vinnies' (young SVP members) from St Mary's Primary School sang Christmas carols and gave out handmade cards to all attendees. And not to forget other SVP members who were on hand on the day – Ben, Ian, Fiona, Pauline, Helena, John, and Rosemary.

RECONCILIATION

Christ entrusted the Church with a profound gift of healing through the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation. This sacrament restores our relationship with God and the Church, strengthens our conscience, and reminds us that 'In him we live and move and have our being' (Acts 17:28).

It invites us not only to receive mercy but to share it, echoing St Francis of Assisi's wisdom that 'It is in pardoning that we are pardoned.' We encourage our parishioners to make use of this important sacrament, which is an encounter with God's loving mercy.

Please pray for the recently deceased: Fr James Hay Sybille Clarke, Marie Benham, John O'Gorman, Bernadette N'Dorma, Gerard Mulhall, Jean Cookman Aurelio Spinola, Andre Delalandre.

Please pray for those whose anniversaries are at this time: Dr Eamon Fenton, Tom Gower, Cheryl McGoldrick, Gibson Sikaleya, Frank Donagh, Alice Appiah-Gyan, Thomas Bromell, Caroline Pearson, Bill Boyd, Yvonne Harvey, Jason Du Haney, Richard Lee, Brian Russell, Jim McNamara, Michael Akpenyi, Catherine Jones

MASS INTENTIONS

'When you offer a Mass intention, you are not "buying prayers." You are joining your love to the Sacrifice of Christ, asking that His saving grace be applied to a soul, a need, or a cause dear to your heart.' – Anthony Okoloba.

I came across this quotation recently by a Catholic Nigerian layman who posts on spiritual matters. On this at least, he struck a chord with me. The sacrifice of the mass is a concept that is not shared with Protestants, but the belief goes back to the earliest times. The Fathers of the Church saw the mass as a fulfilment of the prophecy of Malachi (1:11), "From the rising of the sun even to the going down..... and in every place there is a sacrifice and there is offered in my name a clean oblation." You might recognise this reference in Eucharistic Prayer 3, near the start.

We should understand that the saving sacrifice of Christ's death on the cross, is offered once and for ever (as Protestants remind us) but the Church believes the mass "makes present the one sacrifice of Christ the Saviour" (CCC 1330) for us in the here and now. That eternally significant moment on Calvary is made present to us in a tangible way.

And the Church has long taught that it makes present Christ's graces to both the living and the dead. When, in the 4th century, St Monica was dying a long way from home, she told her son St Augustine that he shouldn't worry about where she was buried as long as he "remembered her at the altar of the Lord." So it is right that we wish to have mass said for our loved ones, living or dead, so they are remembered at the altar of the Lord. After all, the mass is the greatest of prayers as it is the one that Jesus prayed on Calvary.

Yet, though at a Funeral or Requiem mass it is right that the deceased are mentioned in a special way, for other masses we recognise that the mass is also offered for the whole community. In the eucharistic prayer – whichever one the priest is using – we always pray for the Pope, Bishop, Church, and the living and the dead. Indeed, Eucharistic Prayer 1 talks about "this sacrifice of praise" we bring to God. The mass is also about our sacrifice we bring to join with the sacrifice of Christ, not that we are worthy by ourselves, but because everything is redeemed by His self-sacrifice that we are called to imitate.

In this sense, it is appropriate that we make an offering, or mass stipend, that we contribute. For a long time, mass stipends have been used to finance the clergy and to many, unfortunately, it seems rather like buying a sacrament. In some countries they pay clergy a fixed salary and all mass stipends go into a central pot. Personally, I would favour moving to such a system here too. – Fr Andrew.

RECONCILIATION

Christ entrusted the Church with a profound gift of healing through the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation. This sacrament restores our relationship with God and the Church, strengthens our conscience, and reminds us that 'In him we live and move and have our being' (Acts 17:28).

It invites us not only to receive mercy but to share it, echoing St Francis of Assisi's wisdom that 'It is in pardoning that we are pardoned.' We encourage our parishioners to make use of this important sacrament, which is an encounter with God's loving mercy.

We pray for all who have died:

Chris Kelly, Fr James Hay, Sybille Clarke, Marie Benham and John O'Gorman, Bernadette N'Dormadinger.

Please pray for those whose anniversaries are at this time:

Eileen Sheehan, Tanya Clarke, Terry McGee,

We pray for all who are in ill health, for their families and for their carers:

HAPPY NEW YEAR

Happy New Year to you all.

Once again on behalf of the clergy and staff at St Edmund's I would like to express my heartfelt thanks for all the gifts and cards we've received over this Christmas Season and the kindness and support you have shown us throughout the year. Thanks indeed for your generous Christmas offerings for your priests.

You may recall Archbishop John's pastoral letter for the Solemnity of the Holy Family two weeks ago. Having reread it, I've selected one sentence and two longer passages for you to reflect on as we begin this year of 2026.

'In Christ, the radiant hope of God's love and mercy shines into every heart and family'.

'In the mystery of Christmas, the love of God took flesh and dwelt amongst us. How can we work together, co-responsibly, to help make that love real? How can we reach out and accompany those in need in our community: the housebound, the elderly, the bereaved, the isolated, the family new to the parish, and the person who sits alone at Mass? How can we strengthen what is already good amongst us: food banks, winter night shelters, parish support groups, care for prisoners, and school outreach?'

Today, we entrust our families, and our whole Archdiocese, to the Holy Family of Nazareth. Thank you to parents, grandparents, extended family and carers, for your patience and quiet sacrifices that bring the truths of the Holy Family to life. Thank you for your efforts to hand on our beautiful Catholic faith to your children. Thank you too, to our young people for your witness. None of us should ever be ashamed of the Gospel. Christ never diminishes life but enlarges it. Those who entrust themselves to him are never disappointed.

May God bless you all – Fr Steve.

CONFIRMATION 2026

Full information and enrolment details will be in next weekend's newsletter. Please sign up promptly as spaces are limited.

WELCOME & GOODBYE

We are delighted to welcome Michele to the parish office team and very much hope she enjoys her new role. Michele will be working with Barbara in the parish office and replaces Rosemary who retires next Friday – we wish her all the best.

MAKE A NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTION – JOIN THE CATENIANS!

Whether you are new to the parish or just interested in making new friends, you will be assured of a warm welcome at the Catenians.

The Catenians play an important role in strengthening Catholic communities. The Beckenham branch of the association meets once a month and organises various other social events throughout the year.

Our focus is on faith, friendship and family, and we offer the chance to meet fellow Catholics and their families from Beckenham, Hayes and beyond.

We also organise raffles to raise money for good causes, including St Christopher's Hospice and the Priest Training Fund of the Archdiocese of Southwark. If you would like to come to one of our meetings or find out more about the association, please phone Andy Holmes on 07890 008458 or email acncarriman@ntlworld.com.

Being formed in the likeness of Christ, we strive to become a truly Christ centred community, through humble witness, love, compassion and communion.

ST EDMUND'S BEREAVEMENT SUPPORT

When someone we love dies, it's natural to want to talk, share memories and reflect on our loss. Family and friends may offer comfort, but sometimes those around us may not fully understand what we're going through.

The St Edmund's Bereavement Support Group is a kind, safe, and understanding space for those grieving. In a warm and welcoming environment, parishioners can meet others experiencing loss, share their feelings, and talk about practical challenges that can feel overwhelming. There is no pressure to speak – simply being among others can bring reassurance. For those who wish to share, there is always a listening ear. This supportive group is open to all, regardless of faith. We run three groups a year, meeting weekly for six weeks.

A lovely quality of this group is the genuine friendship and mutual support that often grows among those who come together through shared loss.

If you would like to know more, please take a leaflet from the shelf near the Anniversary book at the back of the Church, or email: beckenhamsbg@rcaos.org.uk

THIS NEWSLETTER IS A DOUBLE ISSUE

A very happy Christmas to all

The Parish Office will be closed on Christmas Eve and will re-open on Monday 5 January. Emails will not be monitored over that period so if you need a priest urgently please call them direct or use the links on the Parish Office number. Fr Andrew's office phone has developed a fault. In case there is a delay in resolving this, it might be wise to email him.

Thank you to the organisers, the choirs and all who participated in our parish Advent Carol Service last Saturday. The singing in church and the socialising afterwards in the Hall is always an annual highlight for me. You will be pleased to hear we raised £614.42 for St Christopher's Hospice. Well done to one and all.

'Remember if Christmas isn't found in your heart, you won't find it under a tree'. A quote from Charlotte Carpenter, a country singer. This led me to reflect on how important the real meaning of Christmas is. Amidst all the joyful celebration I hope you have time for some quiet reflection during the Christmas Season. Perhaps this will help as a starter:

For us this day a Saviour is born, who is Christ the Lord. Luke 2:10

On behalf of the clergy and staff, I wish you a blessed and peaceful Christmas.

ST EDMUND'S BEREAVEMENT SUPPORT

When someone we love dies, it's natural to want to talk about them — to share memories of them, express our feelings, and reflect on our loss. Many of us find comfort in family and friends, but sometimes those around us may not fully understand what we're going through.

The St Edmund's Bereavement Support Group offers a kind, safe, and understanding space for anyone who is grieving. In a warm and welcoming environment, parishioners can meet others who have also experienced loss, share their thoughts and feelings, and talk about the practical challenges that can sometimes feel overwhelming. There is no pressure to speak — simply being among others who understand can bring comfort and reassurance. For those who wish to share, there is always a listening ear. This supportive group is open to all, regardless of faith. We run three groups a year, meeting once a week for six weeks.

A lovely quality of this group is the genuine friendship and mutual support that often grows among those who come together through shared loss.

The parish also offers other ways to remember loved ones:

- The Memorial Board, located at the back of the church is a place where you may display a photo or Order of Service. These will remain there for twelve months as a visible tribute.
 - The Anniversary Book also located at the back of the church, allows you to record the names of loved ones to be remembered. Please ask the Parish Office to do this.
- Each week, an Anniversary List is published in the Newsletter so that the whole parish community can remember them in their prayers.

Each November, we hold a Requiem Mass dedicated to all bereaved relatives and friends. If you would like your loved one's name included, please contact the Parish Office prior to the Mass. This Mass is a calm, prayerful time of reflection and remembrance, followed by refreshments in the Hall where all are welcome.

If you would like to know more about St Edmund's Bereavement Support, please take one of our leaflets from the shelf near the Anniversary Book at the back of the Church. You can also email us: beckenhamsq@rcaos.org.uk

CLAVER SISTERS' CALENDARS

The sale of this calendar last weekend raised a wonderful £2,556.41.

The Sisters are raising funds to purchase a vehicle for the Augustinian sisters who run a dispensary in the remote area of Natitingou diocese, Benin.

There will not be evening Adoration on Christmas Day at the Claver Convent.

We are very pleased to welcome Lawrence Dunham to the parish for a short stay between the 3rd and 28th January.

Lawrence is currently a seminarian studying at Valladolid in Spain.

Please will parishioners put their mobile phones on silent whilst they are in the church.

An increasing number of Masses are being disturbed by ringing phones. Thank you for your co-operation.

CHURCH SHOP

We still have candles made for our 75th anniversary celebration. These are beautifully boxed and would make a lovely Christmas gift.

We also have in the shop copies of a book written by a parishioner, Tammy Ferrando. It is 'a Christmas story of fun & fulfilled dreams starring the Holy Trinity and little Chris!' It would make an ideal Christmas gift for 3-6 year olds.

In his annual Christmas message, Archbishop John Wilson said: "The beautiful truth of Christmas is that because of God in Christ we are never lost. God chose to be near us, to stay close to us always, to draw us to himself, always. In his endless mercy, the Lord Jesus chose to love us, so we could know and believe that "God is love" (1 John 4:16). In turn, all the Lord Jesus asks of us is to not be afraid and to say yes to him, to draw close to him, to love him".

You can watch and read the full message at rcaos.org.uk/christmasmessage2025. or use the QR code to access the message on your phone.

On behalf of the service team, The Light of Christ Catholic Charismatic Prayer Meeting wishes you a very Blessed Christmas and a Happy New Year. We will not meet over the Christmas period and look forward to seeing you on Wednesday 7th January, 2026.

BEREAVEMENT SUPPORT GROUP STARTING SOON

A 6-week Bereavement Support Group will begin on Thursday, 19 February, meeting weekly at 6:00 pm in the Meeting Room at St. Edmund's Hall. This free group is open to everyone, regardless of faith, and offers a supportive space to share and heal. Spaces are limited to 7 attendees.

HONESTY BEFORE GOD AND MAN GIVES US PEACE AND HAPPINESS

Dear friends in Christ,

When I visited one of the shopping centres in town this week, a gentleman came into the shop where I had gone to buy some small item, picked up some valuable, put it into his pocket and smartly walked out of the shop without paying! This shocked me and it made me recall this story of a very honest widow in Uganda which I will now share with you.

A shopkeeper had just opened his store when a woman arrived and said, "Sir, here is your 1,000 shillings."

The shopkeeper looked at the poor woman with questioning eyes, as if asking, "When did I give you 1,000 shillings?" The woman replied, "Last evening, I bought some items. I gave you 10,000 shillings, bought goods worth 7,000 and you returned 4,000 instead of 3,000."

The shopkeeper touched the 1,000 to his forehead, placed it in the cash box, and asked, "Tell me one thing, sister. You bargained so much while buying the items, even for 500 shillings and now you've come all the way to return 1,000?!"

The woman replied, "Bargaining is my right. But once the price is settled, paying less is a sin."

The Shopkeeper said, "But you didn't pay less. You paid the full amount. This 1,000 came to you by my mistake. If you had kept it, it wouldn't have made any difference to me."

The Woman said, "It may not matter to you, but it would weigh on my conscience. I would know I kept your money knowingly. That's why I came last night to return it, but your shop was closed."

The Shopkeeper asked in surprise, "Where do you live?" She replied, "Road 8."

The Shopkeeper's mouth dropped open. "You came 3 kilometers just to return 1,000 shillings and this is your second visit?!!!"

The Woman calmly said, "Yes, it's my second visit. If you want peace of mind, you have to do such things. My husband is no longer in this world, but he taught me one thing: 'Never take even a single coin that belongs to someone else because a person may stay silent, but the One above can ask for an account anytime. And the punishment for that account might fall on my children.'"

Saying this, the woman left.

The Shopkeeper immediately took out 30,000 shillings from the cash box, got on his bike, and told his assistant, "Take care of the shop. I'll be back soon."

He went to another shop in the market and handed 30,000 shillings to the shopkeeper named Prince "Here, take your 30,000. Yesterday, when you came to buy goods, I overcharged you."

Prince laughed and said, "If you overcharged me, you could've returned it when I came back. Why come so early in the morning?"

The shopkeeper replied, "What if I die before you return? You didn't even know I owed you 30,000 shillings. That's why I had to return it. Who knows when the One above will ask for an account? And the punishment might fall on my children." The shopkeeper left, but Prince was deeply disturbed. Ten years before, he had borrowed 3,000,000, (three million) shillings from a friend. But the very next day, the friend passed away.

The friend's family didn't know about the money, so no one asked for it. Prince, tempted by greed, never took the initiative to return it.

Today, that friend's family lives in poverty. His widow worked as a maid to raise her children. Yet Prince had kept their money.

The shopkeeper's words - "Who knows when the One above will ask for an account, and the punishment might fall on my children"-haunted Prince.

After three days of mental turmoil, his conscience awakened. He withdrew 30,000,000 shillings (30 million) from the bank and went to his friend's house.

The widow was at home, sitting with her children. Prince fell at her feet. For a woman struggling for every coin, 30,000,000 was a huge amount. Tears welled up in her eyes. She blessed Prince for his honesty.

She is the same woman who had gone twice to return 1,000/ shillings to the shopkeeper.

From the story above we learn that honesty makes us live in peace with God and with one another. As we prepare for the celebration of Christmas, may we be honest with God in all our dealings, aware that He knows us through and through, and that we shall account to Him for our actions. May we always treat one another with love, honesty, sincerity and trust. Let our conscience always be our judges.

MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR

Altar Servers at Christmas

We wish to ensure that the Christmas Services run as smoothly as possible so we are asking our young Altar Servers, with their parent's approval, to let us know which Mass they intend to serve at.

Christmas Eve Masses

4.00 pm, 6.00 pm, 8.00 pm and Midnight

Christmas Day Masses

8.00 am, 9.30 am and 11.00 am

There are a couple of procedural matters. First, we would ask that ALL Altar Servers arrive at least 15 minutes before the Mass commences. For Midnight Mass 30 minutes is requested. This allows for the delivery of any important information before the Mass starts.

Secondly, at recent Midnight Masses very young children have fallen asleep on the Sanctuary. They should be in bed really! Please only older Altar Servers at this Mass.

There are lists in the Sacristy for Altar Servers to sign to let us know when they will be serving. They can also contact Deacon Sean at seanmurphy@rcaos.org.uk

Many thanks, Peter Lake

Being formed in the likeness of Christ, we strive to become a truly Christ centred community, through humble witness, love, compassion and communion.

SVP GIFT CARD APPEAL FOR LOCAL FAMILIES IN NEED

 Cash and cheques can be posted through the parish office door.

DATE FOR YOUR DIARY
Thursday 1 January
 After 10.00 am Mass

You are all invited to come over to the Hall for refreshments with family and friends to greet 2026 with warmth and friendship.

A CHRISTMAS PRAYER

At the Christmas Fair last Saturday children were invited to write 'A Christmas Prayer'. These have been moved to the church and placed on a Prayer Tree in the Lady Chapel.

If any parishioner would like to add their prayer to this tree there are cards at the back of church this weekend.

Please will parishioners put their mobile phones on silent whilst they are in the church.

An increasing number of Masses are being disturbed by ringing phones.

Thank you for your co-operation.

READERS AT CHRISTMAS MASSES

Booklets containing the readings for Midnight Mass and the Masses of Christmas Day (8.00 am, 9:30 am and 11.00 am) are in the sacristy for you to collect.

These booklets DO NOT contain the readings for the Vigil Masses of Christmas Eve (4.00 pm, 6.00 pm and 8.00 pm). We will notify readers for these Masses when we have the appropriate Missalettes.

CLAVER SISTERS' CALENDARS

The Missionary Sisters of St Peter Claver will be selling their 2026 Mission Calendars after all Masses this weekend. The Sisters are raising funds to purchase a vehicle for the Sisters of St Louis who run Mobile Schools in the rural areas of a diocese in Ghana. Please give generously.

CHURCH SHOP

We still have candles made for our 75th anniversary celebration. These are beautifully boxed and would make a lovely Christmas gift.

SCOOTER

A child's scooter has been left at the back of the church for a couple of weeks. If it is your child's, please come to the Parish Office to collect it.

If it is not claimed by Wednesday it will be taken to a charity shop.

Last week I was in Prague with Archbishop John Wilson and other priests of Southwark diocese who have been ordained in the last few years.

We visited the church of the Holy Infant of Prague and Prague Cathedral, visiting the tombs of St Vitus and St Wenceslaus and climbing the bell tower.

We celebrated Mass together at St Norbert's tomb at the Stahov Monastery (Fr. Gildas from the Norbertine community at Peckham arranged this). We also celebrated Mass at the Jesuit church of St Ignatius and this photo was taken afterwards.

If you look closely you will recognise a number of priests who spent some time at Beckenham: Allan McDonald, Frazer Bellfield and Joseph Gulliford (now with a beard).

Thank you to Cathy and her team who put this together and raised £1600.00.

A few pictures of the fair.

A big thank you to Father Christmas for dropping in to see the children.

ARCHBISHOP JOHN'S ADVENT 2025 REFLECTION

This Advent, Archbishop John is calling us on to reflect on the “astonishing truth” that the “Lord Jesus is, and always will be, Emmanuel: God with us, God beside us, God within us”. In a video reflection, Archbishop John said that: “to say God is with us is not poetry but power. It means that the Lord Jesus stepped into our humanity so that we might step into his divinity. It means that God is no distant deity, but one who draws near; who shares our joys and carries our sorrows; who opens heaven to earth, and earth to heaven”. You can watch his full reflection at rcaos.org.uk/advent2025.

CALLED TO BEAR FRUIT consultation response published

Thank you to the thousands of people who took part in the Called to Bear Fruit Consultation. We are grateful to you all for sharing so openly your hopes for the life of the Church in our Archdiocese.

The consultation revealed a burning desire within our parishes to be missionary and evangelising disciples of the Lord Jesus Christ, who work together to help people encounter His love.

So, as we move forward on the next steps together, let's build up the Body of Christ in Southwark with faith and confidence, becoming ever more a community of missionary disciples filled with joy and hope for the future. As an Archdiocese, we will continue to discern the process of renewal, and further updates will be provided in due course.

CHRISTINGLE - A SIGN OF HAPPINESS

Over three hundred years ago, a bishop in Germany gave all the children in his church a gift. The gift was a candle with a red ribbon around it. He wanted to give the children something to remind them that their happiness came from God.

What Does It All Mean?

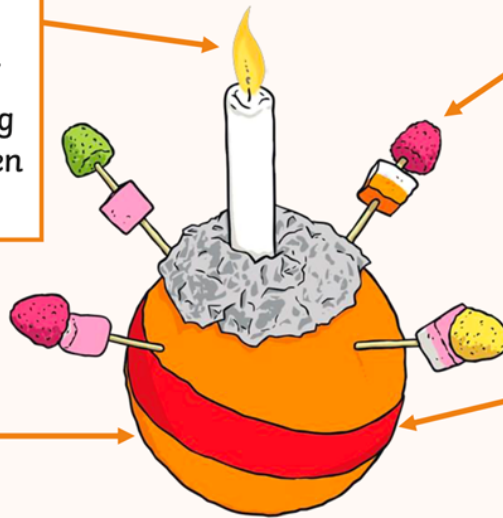

What do you think is the meaning of each part of the Christingle?

The candle represents Jesus being the light of the world, bringing hope to people when they are in need.

The sweets/dried fruit represent God's creations in the four seasons.

The orange
world.

The red ribbon represents God's love for the world and the blood of Jesus when he died on the cross.

You will need

• 4 cocktail sticks • an orange • a red ribbon • some sweets or dried fruit AND a candle

Instructions

Tie the red ribbon around the middle of the orange.

Push the four cocktail sticks into the orange.

Carefully, put the sweets or dried fruit on the ends of the cocktail sticks.

Push the candle into the orange. You might need an adult to make a small hole at the top of the orange first.

We are having a Christingle service at 2.00 pm on Monday 22nd December. Why don't you make one and come along?

Fr Andrew.

Being formed in the likeness of Christ, we strive to become a truly Christ centred community, through humble witness, love, compassion and communion.

RED WEDNESDAY: OUR SUFFERING CHURCH

Last Wednesday, an annual Mass was celebrated in St George's Cathedral where it started in Southwark ten years ago. It is also celebrated in other cathedrals as well.

Entitled Red Wednesday, it's an initiative of the ACN (Aid to the Church in Need) which seeks to raise our awareness of Christians who suffer for their faith.

At the conclusion of the Mass Tobias Yahaya, a 26 year-old married man with a wife and four children, a catechist from Sokoto, Northern Nigeria received from the Bishop Elect of Plymouth, Nicholas Hudson, the main celebrant, an award for his fortitude in the face of extreme persecution and for his willingness to forgive. In tears he humbly received his award, then gathered himself to address the congregation.

He then related the events of 19th April 2023 when he went outside his house to confront three men who were attempting to enter. Almost immediately he felt pain in his chest and fell to the ground bleeding. Two of the men fled, but the main assailant, Ibrahim by name, went to attack Tobias again. He suffered further injuries as he grabbed hold of the blade of the knife. It was then that neighbours, hearing the screams of Tobias' wife, came and apprehended Ibrahim.

Tobias was unconscious for twenty-four hours. Later in hospital he was able to ask Ibrahim, "Why do you want to kill me?" His would be assassin became tearful; while an incredulous onlooker asked Tobias why he was wasting his time.

In court, Ibrahim said the reason he attempted to kill Tobias was the negative influence he'd had on his children.

After sentence was passed Tobias did something quite unexpected. he hugged Ibrahim, shook him by the hand and uttered the words, "I forgive you". At this Ibrahim bowed his head and wept. Tobias had always been inspired by the action of St John Paul II who forgave the man who attempted to assassinate him and later visited him in prison.

Weeks later after the court case Tobias had a discussion with his family and decided to continue his catechetical work, comforted by the words of his mother who told him, 'Where God intends us to be may not be as comfortable as we would wish but it is where the greatest witness can be given.'

I encourage you to join me this week in praying for Tobias and his family, for their faith, courage and willingness to forgive.

Please also pray for Ibrahim that after being fully repentant he may truly become a peacemaker working alongside Tobias in the vineyard. We also give thanks for the ACN in making us all aware of how difficult and sometimes costly responding to God's call can be.

THE BEAUTY OF THE SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION

Dear friends in Christ, allow me to share a short story with you, of a son, who took advantage of his brother Jacob, because of fear of telling the truth.

One day I threw a stone and accidentally hit my mother's hen and it died instantly. I thought I was alone but unfortunately, my brother was right behind me, watching.

He said "give me 2000 shillings and I won't tell mum". I said "I don't have that but please don't tell her".

The following day, Mum told my brother to wash the plates and sweep the floors but he said "Mum, Jacob said he will do it".

Then he came to me and said "Jacob you wash the plates and sweep the floors or else, don't forget you killed a hen". Without hesitating, I washed the plates and swept the floors for him.

The next day, mum told him to go and fetch water and fill the drum. He said again: "Mum, Jacob said he will do it". Then he came to me and said: "Jacob, remember that hen!!" Fill this drum with water or else...."

That's how I drew water and filled the drum. That same day in the evening, mum sent him to the market to buy rice and again he said Mum, Jacob said he will go and buy". He came to me again and said, "don't forget that the hen is still dead, go to the market and buy 2 kilos of rice or else....." It was now becoming too much for me, so I just stood up took courage and went to my Mum with tears in my eyes.

I found her seated in the house, I went to her, knelt down and said while crying: "Mum, I am so sorry please forgive me. I am the one who killed your hen but it wasn't deliberately. Please Mum, forgive me. I am sorry."

Then she replied:, "My son, the day you killed the hen, I was at the window watching everything that happened. Your brother made you his slave because you did not want to come to me to confess and apologize. But now you have done it, you will be free, he will no longer use you".

Dear friends, each time we sin, God sees us and our sins make us slaves. The moment we confess to God and ask for forgiveness, we are set free.

In confession we accuse ourselves to God and ask for forgiveness which we receive instantly from him through His minister, the priest.

We tell God the truth about ourselves, about our relationship with Him and with others.

We regret our bad ways of life, promise God we shall do better with his help, thereby repairing our spiritual life.

We restore our personal relationship with Him and the church, weakened by sin. We receive sacramental grace to help us resist future temptations and sin.

Confession promotes greater self control, and humility, and helps us overcome bad habits, helping us become more like Christ Jesus. Finally the sacrament provides a solution for sins committed and restores sanctifying grace to all who receive the sacrament.

May we kindly like Jacob in the story above, take courage, go and confess to God all our sins, so that sins do not enslave us any more, most especially at this special time of the year when we prepare to Receive Jesus Christ, born in our hearts at Christmas.

Thank you,

Fr Boniface Arapa

Being formed in the likeness of Christ, we strive to become a truly Christ centred community, through humble witness, love, compassion and communion.

A WEEKEND FOR THOSE WHO HAVE BEEN BEREAVED

The Friars, Aylesford

20 – 22 March 2026

9 - 11 October 2026.

This weekend takes place away from the pressures of day-to-day life and can help one begin to come to terms with bereavement. It is a time for quiet, prayer, talking and acceptance.

The weekend is for anyone who has experienced bereavement, either recently or some time ago.

We grieve, remember, hope and give thanks for our loved ones in the light of the Resurrection of Jesus.

For more information contact Reception on 01622 717 272 or email

reception@thefriars.org.uk

This course comes highly recommended by a parishioner who attended in October.

A survey is being carried out for the Bishops Conference of England and Wales.

It is hoping to gather knowledge of what people with Autism and ADHD (and similar) and their carers experience at church and what would make it easier for them to be part of parish worship and life. Please, if you have any experience of this take a moment to look at the survey. The hope is that, armed with knowledge, the church can set about becoming a more welcoming and inclusive community.

The retiring collection is for the Archbishop's Appeal

RED POPPIES

This Sunday morning, thousands of people from across the country – as here in Beckenham - will attend services at their neighbourhood war memorials to remember men and women from the armed services and emergency services who have died in war or in other military conflicts. Many thousands more will attend the main national commemoration centred on the Cenotaph in Whitehall, with millions more watching on television. For many of these, Remembrance Sunday is one of the most important days in our collective national calendar. Not everyone agrees.

Some consider such ceremonies outdated: historic events that have outlived their time. Most of those who survived the two great world wars of the twentieth century, they might argue, are themselves now dead: isn't it time to let go? Some argue: what about all the civilians who have perished in wars? Don't they deserve commemorating as well? Some, from the former colonies, or from Ireland, remember that, in their own countries, and well into the twentieth century, British forces were often used as instruments of brutal oppression. And some of the millions from Asia, Africa, or the West Indies who fought on the Allied side find it hard to overlook the rampant racism within the forces at the time and the deliberate decision by post-war British governments to erase from our national consciousness the huge contribution made by non-white men and women toward the war effort in both world wars. Some will argue that war, or violence of any kind, are abhorrent and inconsistent with their Christian beliefs, and that commemorating those who died during such conflicts is tantamount to approving of war.

I have more sympathy with some of these arguments than with others, but I respect them all, even if I do not agree with them. To those who consider Remembrance Sunday outdated, I would simply ask: do you think that our lives would be better now, in 2025, if men and women had not been prepared to put their neck on the line in 1939? And what of those who have died in action since then – do they not deserve our gratitude? As to the argument about 'civilians as well', I would suggest that it is a matter of proportion. Civilian deaths in this country from enemy action during the second world war, excluding members of the merchant navy, were less than one in a thousand of the population. By contrast, in both world wars, the death rate among those on active service was 12 to 13 per cent and in the merchant navy the figure was even higher. The risk of dying as a civilian, though real, was still very small, even in London and the major cities. But those joining up, whether voluntarily or through conscription, had a one in eight chance of not coming back. That, to my mind, is courage on a noble scale.

As for the 'Christian principles' argument, I would remind you that the Church does not require total, non-violent submission in the face of aggression, and it not only supports the principle of national self defence but also that of military conscription – albeit with very rigorous qualifications (See Catechism of the Catholic Church 2308, 2310).

But there is one argument against the marking of Remembrance Sunday that I wholly object to, and that is the assertion that it glorifies war. It does not. The entire emphasis on Sunday will be on those who died in wars and conflicts from the First World War onwards. Yes, there are people on the right who have tried to hijack Remembrance Sunday commemorations for their own nationalistic, and sometimes racist purposes. And, yes, it is not unknown for Governments to try to manipulate the occasion, and the memory of those who died, for their own purposes. But the vast majority of those attending or watching the ceremonies on Sunday will be honouring, in gratitude, sometimes with prayers, those who died not only in two world wars but also, let us not forget, in many other military actions since. Yes, there will be some uniforms and some flags at the cenotaph: it is, after all, servicemen and women that we will be honouring. But that will be the end of it. The ten thousand people who will march or be wheeled down Whitehall after the main ceremony will not include a single serving member of the armed services. The veterans and their family members who make up the parade will not be wearing uniforms, apart from berets, for some, and military decorations. There will be no flag-waving, no tub-thumping, no displays of tanks and military hardware – nothing that could possibly be construed as glorification of war. Instead, there will be poppies. Let me finish by recording what the British Legion has to say about the role of this spindly, fragile, wispy, but beautiful, flower:

'During WW1, much of the fighting took place in Western Europe. The countryside was blasted, bombed and fought over repeatedly. Previously beautiful landscapes turned to mud; bleak and barren scenes where little or nothing could grow'.

'There was a notable and striking exception to the bleakness - the bright red Flanders poppies. These resilient flowers flourished in the middle of so much chaos and destruction, growing in the thousands upon thousands'.

'Remembrance does not glorify war, and its symbol, the red poppy, is a sign of both Remembrance and hope for a peaceful future.' (From the British Legion website.)

ALL SAINTS ALL SOULS

These are usually celebrated on the first and second of November. I have lived in both France and Italy where All Saints Day is a public holiday and, even in this secular age, is well observed in French and Italian society, in the same way that 'cultural Christians' in this country celebrate Christmas and Easter and would eat pancakes on Shrove Tuesday. In fact, when I lived in France, I was surprised when a Jewish lady I knew said she would be visiting her Jewish relatives graves during the holiday. If you are in France at this time the florists will all be selling chrysanthemums, as this is the flower typically taken to the cemetery. Don't make the mistake of taking a bunch to give to your hostess at a dinner party though, as chrysanthemums are considered the flower of death and mourning. It would be a bit like taking her a wreath.

As people may only have the public holiday itself off work, the cemetery visits for All Souls that day are thus made a day earlier than they should be. The French and Italians have half an excuse in confusing the two celebrations due to the holiday, but many English Catholics do the same. On All Saints Day the liturgical colour is white as we celebrate not only all the canonised saints but also all those 'little people' who lived a hidden life of sanctity, but have never been formally recognised as saints. Pope Francis used to have a very apt phrase; 'the saints next door.' He meant not just those living literally next door, but those who live around us and whom we meet in our daily lives. Those who, quietly and without fuss, simply do the will of God.

On All Souls Day the priest wears purple or black- these colours are used for the Requiem Mass on Remembrance Sunday as well - as we remember the Holy Souls in purgatory, those who have died in God's friendship but who have not yet progressed enough in sanctity to enter heaven straight away. The Bible tells us 'Nothing unclean will ever enter it' (heaven) Revelation 21:27. So on All Souls Day, and for the rest of November, the emphasis shifts to praying for the faithful departed. The prayers and masses we offer for them help them to stay firm in their resolve to purify themselves, 'It is a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead, that they may be loosed from sins.' 2 Maccabees 12:46. (Douay-Rheims.) This verse, from an Old Testament book set in the second century BC, shows that the Jews prayed for the dead. Martin Luther and other Protestants rejected the concept of praying for the dead and Catholic teaching on purgatory. They rejected 2 Maccabees and other books, e.g. Tobit, Wisdom, Baruch, that had always been in Christian Bibles. These were in the Septuagint translation of the Old Testament used by the early Christians, but Luther restricted the list of books of his Old Testament to a shorter list of books drawn up by Jewish rabbis after the destruction of Jerusalem by the Romans in AD 70. That is why Protestant Bibles have fewer books than Catholic and Greek Orthodox ones. Some Protestants will loudly insist there is no Biblical warrant for praying for the dead, but they are not using the same Old Testament as the first Christians! Catholic and Greek Orthodox Christians continue to pray for the faithful departed as they have always done, considering this to be a "Holy and wholesome thought."

EUCCHARISTIC MINISTERS

Fr Steve and the other clergy have asked me to write to you about becoming ministers of the eucharist. Technically lay people become “extraordinary” ministers of the eucharist. “Extraordinary” is “church jargon” contrasting with the “ordinary” ministers of Holy Communion who are the priests and deacons.

When they think of eucharistic ministers, people think about the distribution of Holy Communion at Mass, and we could indeed do with some more assistance at Mass, but there is another very important reason for asking. One of the roles of an extraordinary eucharistic minister is to take Holy Communion to the sick. We simply no longer have enough priests and deacons to do this. And as a parish we have not been so good at this, especially since Covid, when people became reluctant to go into peoples' homes. It is a sad truth that some of our elderly have been somewhat neglected. I am ashamed to say that people who have been faithful Catholics all their lives, even daily Mass goers, have sometimes slipped through the cracks. We are currently looking at our lists to update them as the first step towards improvement. We would ask anyone who has a friend, relative or neighbour who is in need of a visit or Holy Communion to contact the office - and with their consent - give contact details. We are aiming for people to be visited on a more regular basis: they should see a priest regularly, though not every time. If lay ministers are able to take communion on the other occasions, we should be able to visit more people on a more regular basis and also make sure everyone has a chance to see a priest. If someone felt able to help with the admin and check that people are being visited regularly and on a fair basis, this would help too. Someone taking just an hour or so to check, once a fortnight, would be a great help. This job could be done by one of the eucharistic ministers or by someone who would not be comfortable with visiting people in their homes, but wishes to help alleviate this problem.

Of course, eucharistic ministers are needed to help with Mass but they can also, with permission, expose or repose the Blessed Sacrament. They are not allowed to do the blessing with the monstrance, as this is reserved to priests and deacons. However, even to enable simple exposition is a worthwhile ministry: as the number of priests reduces this may be a great benefit to the community.

Eucharistic Ministers can also conduct eucharistic services when no priest is available. Now this is not to say that ALL eucharistic ministers must do this, most don't or wouldn't feel comfortable so doing, but it is just an indication of the importance of this ministry. Would-be ministers must, however undergo the usual safeguarding checks, due to their interactions with vulnerable adults, and the necessary training.

In the near future clergy will be asking people if they would like to consider undertaking this ministry. If you are asked, do give it your consideration.

BOOKS FOR CHILDREN

We are building up a box of little religious books for children to look at whilst they are in church. We have made a start by purchasing some and hope that parishioners will be happy to donate books that their children have grown out of.

The box will be on the table in the centre aisle for the next few weeks to receive your donations.

Thank you to those who have already brought books in.

Our Prayer Tree for the Holy Souls will be on the sanctuary from 1 November.

At the back of the church, by our Remembrance Book, you will find blank templates for you to complete and then hang on the tree.

BETTY STEPHENS RIP

Betty Stephens and her family moved to Beckenham in the 1960's and have been active members of the parish since then.

Betty was greatly involved in the parish community. She enjoyed supporting the parish in many ways, often having training priests staying at the family home, running many different stalls at the Christmas Fair, making soft toys to sell, progressing to the White Elephant Stall in later years. No job was refused by Betty.

She was a kind and considerate lady, caring for the sick and elderly, assisting the altar servers each Sunday, working at the jumble sales for the Scouts and she set up and participated in many other groups within the parish, which enabled many to develop a good social life and friendships within the parish.

Betty's faith allowed her to enjoy being active within the parish and she always said that being part of the community was very rewarding and she had made many true friends over the years.

Betty's requiem will be on 10 November at 11.30 am and all parishioners who knew Betty are invited to attend.

WHY CATHOLICS GO TO HOLY MASS

Holy Mass is a communal gathering where Catholics come together as a community of believers to worship and be united with God and with one another. It is considered the highest form of worship, and a way to give thanks and praise to God for all that he has done for us. It is also a central re-enactment of the last supper when Jesus was with his disciples, and a memorial of His sacrifice on the cross. During Holy Mass Catholics receive the Body and Blood of Christ in the Eucharist, which provides spiritual strength and grace.

Hence attending Mass is essential spiritual food, providing the necessary words and sacrament, to avoid spiritual weakness and emptiness. It is an opportunity for Catholics to be sorry for their sins and receive forgiveness from God.

Nowadays however, not many people take going to Mass seriously. Some people attend Mass online, even when they have no reason to. Others listen to Mass on radios and televisions. From the time COVID struck to now, Mass attendance the world over has declined. For instance, in our church the attendance has dropped from an average of 1035 pre covid to 653 in the count just carried out. It is worth noting that the normal way of attending Holy Mass is for the members of the Christian community to come together to the church or to a community as circumstances may allow and other ways are exceptional. (We do of course give thanks that our housebound parishioners are able to join with us each day on our live streamed Masses and receive communion at home thanks to our Eucharistic Ministers and the clergy team).

Let it be clear to us that if we miss going to Mass, we miss that aspect of "coming together as a community of believers" therefore our community life is weakened. We also miss receiving the Body and Blood of Christ, thereby missing the spiritual food, which cannot be received through attending Mass online or through other channels.

If there is not a compelling reason, let us not avoid coming to Mass in person, so that we can build our spiritual life and strengthen our community life too.

Could each one of us reach out to a friend who has not attended Mass for some good time, and in a loving way explain to the friend and encourage them to resume Mass attendance for their spiritual wellbeing and for the growth of the church.

Thank you,

Fr Arapa Boniface

BECOMING AN EXTRAORDINARY MINISTER OF HOLY COMMUNION

I run a local home care service (Capable Care), and during the pandemic it became clear that some of our clients and other parishioners couldn't get to Mass to receive Communion. I wanted to help, and when St Edmund's invited volunteers to become Eucharistic Ministers, I responded.

I'll admit, I initially thought it was something for the especially holy or those who knew a lot of theology — but I was wrong. Being an Extraordinary Minister isn't about being perfect; it's about helping with one of the most sacred parts of Mass — sharing the Eucharist.

Last Saturday I attended a Formation Day at St George's Cathedral which was relaxed and uplifting, with two talks, a session of adoration, and Mass. Over 70 people from across the Diocese — from teenagers to people in their 80s — took part. Everyone shared the same simple desire: to help make this part of the Mass run smoothly.

If you'd like to serve in this way, please speak to one of the clergy team

CHRISTMAS SHOEBOX APPEAL

Unbelievable but it is Christmas shoebox time of year again!

Leaflets for this year's appeal are at the back of church; it would be wonderful if you could fill a box for our St Edmund's Blythwood appeal this year. Once again, all the boxes we collect will be distributed in Kosovo.

There is more information about the 2025 shoebox appeal and videos of last year's boxes being distributed on Blythwood's website <https://blythwood.org/shoeboxappeal/>

If you can share details about the shoebox collection with family and friends to help us collect as many boxes as possible, we would be very grateful.

It is easy to choose gifts for people who have so little. Shampoo, a pair of socks, a notepad, a small toy, a bag of sweets — things we take for granted are luxuries to people living in poverty.

By filling a shoebox with simple things you can bring hope this Christmas.

This year please bring your filled boxes to the Parish Office — boxes can be dropped off until Sunday 2nd November.

If you have any questions, then do get in touch.

Lucienne Vella 07884 184534 or Susie Watchorn 07956 574789.

Thank you so much for your generosity every year with the shoebox appeal.

PEACE IN THE HOLY LAND?

A few weeks ago the Gospel reading at Sunday Mass included the parable of a man who, wanting to accommodate his bumper harvest, tore down his old barns and built bigger ones. He died before he could derive any benefit from them. The reading is from Luke's gospel (12: 13 - 21) and those of you who come to week-day Mass will have the opportunity of hearing it again in just over a week's time.

The story is so arresting that we tend to forget what made Jesus tell it: a man's request for Jesus' help in getting his hands on an inheritance that his brother had refused to pass on to him. For most of us, Jesus' reaction to the man is disconcerting, because he refuses to help. Instead, he warns the man not to be greedy. 'Don't strive to accumulate more than you need for life,' he says, 'what matters is your credit rating with your Father in heaven.' Whether or not we have personal experience of litigation over wills and inheritances, we will all know of such cases, and most of us will have some sympathy with the man that Jesus puts down so uncompromisingly. The thought of anyone being swindled makes us recoil with indignation as something deep within us kicks in; as Machiavelli observed: a man will sooner forget the death of his father than the loss of his inheritance.

As I write this, we are waiting to see if the plan to end the war in Gaza will stick. The root of the conflict is essentially the same as that of the man who sought Jesus' help - though multiplied enormously. Those of us who have happy childhood memories will sigh at the thought of the family home being sold after the death of our parents, but we get over it. However, when what is at stake is not the family home but the land of our birth, or the land of our parents and ancestors, it is a different matter, because that land is where our beliefs, culture and values were nurtured, the source from which we developed our sense of belonging, and of how we fit in on God's earth. Having to let go of it, or being forced out of it, can be an assault on our very identity. For Palestinians, the Holy Land is theirs, as it had been for centuries. Until a hundred years ago it was overwhelmingly a land of Palestinians, and its expropriation in 1948, and their enforced removal from large parts of it, remains, for them, a catastrophe. For Jews, piecing together their sense of self-hood after the horrors their people underwent at the hands of the Nazis and their collaborators, the Holy Land holds a similar place: looking back over two thousand years, they also claim it as theirs. The dispute is not just about real estate and a source of livelihood, but about Palestinian and Jewish people's sense of themselves, of who they are, of where they belong.

But when both sides claim the same land as being inalienably theirs, there can be only one outcome, as, for large numbers in both populations, mounting suspicion gives way to fear and hatred, before escalating, inevitably, into a total demonisation of the other side, until each camp even denies the basic human rights of the other, and seizes land, kidnaps and slaughters hostages, or bombs indiscriminately. And, all the while, nobody has achieved anything worth having.

For decades, masses of Palestinians have lived, been born, died, in poverty, in refugee camps, at first hoping for justice, but descending, as despair kicked in, into a craving for revenge. Zionists, with cruelty, violence, fire and bullets, continue to seize land from Palestinians and to build on it, having then to surround their settlements with razor wire to remain safe against reprisals. Can either side ever have a moment's real peace?

When Jesus advised that man over his inheritance dispute, he said nothing about seeking to be reconciled with his brother, and he refused, point blank, to intervene, not even in the interests of justice. Instead, he homed in on what he saw as the core of the matter, telling the man to guard against believing that possessions can make us happy. It's not an easy lesson for any of us. But suppose the man did, somehow, go on to seek justice, in the courts, say. Would peace result? A judge might assign him what was due to him; but the family would probably remain broken, perhaps forever, as both brothers continue to live out their resentment in the years ahead.

Maybe there is a lesson here as we consider the problem of justice in the Holy Land. Peace can only come when both sides back down from a belief that it's about winning and losing. Seventy years of conflict have shown the emptiness of that way of thinking. We must thank God that there have long been many, many people - Jews, Muslims, Christians, Palestinians, Israelis - living together in the Holy Land, who do want peace, who have always wanted peace. If the proposal for ceasing the war in Gaza can take hold, we can yet hope that the voices of these other people can be heard as the din of gunfire and bombing, and the wailing of the bereaved, and the groaning of the wounded and the destitute, gradually fade away.

Deacon Seán

Being formed in the likeness of Christ, we strive to become a truly Christ centred community, through humble witness, love, compassion and communion.

"If we do not plan, we plan to fail". My words in last's week newsletter caused some comment and feedback so I am writing Part 2 to you sooner than I expected.

The issue of Supply Priests, which I wrote about last time is an immediate issue, but there is a background to this. In 'The Called to Bear Fruit' booklets we looked at a year ago, the Archbishop asked us to prepare for the future so we can ensure provision for the sacraments when we have fewer priests.

This is a practical issue, whatever your opinion on married priests and woman's ordination is. The Anglicans have both, but their clergy numbers are falling too: 47% of their stipendiary clergy will reach retirement age in the next 12 years and the current rate of ordinations will not replace them.

Things are far from hopeless as there is currently a increase in those discerning the priesthood. And we have help from religious orders like the Franciscans, Carmelites and Spiritans in many parishes of the diocese.

However, we have to plan for clergy retiring over the next few years. Last year the Bishop of Arundel and Brighton - our neighbour, of course - caused some shock when he said he intended to replace the existing 85 parishes with just 11 'Team Parishes'.

Fr Ashley told me in an email the other day that the first of these has now been set up, in Brighton and Hove. Last October the Bishop of Lancaster told me, at the ordination of one of my colleagues from the Beda, that he was reducing the number of parishes in his diocese from around 90 down to 25 or so. We can't expect Beckenham to escape. It is useless to speculate on details - there is consultation with clergy in the near future to decide these - but generally it is clear that parishes are going to be merged and grouped together in a new way. I expect that there will still be more than one priest at St Edmund's but, rather than seeing them as St Edmund's priests exclusively, we need to understand they are priests for other local churches too as they may need to go there on a regular basis.

All of this means extra work for Fr Steve as the local Dean, but it does ensure that needs are met. In some ways it would be good for our over worked catechists and volunteers to do some things - confirmation? - on a deanery basis. Things will be different rather than worse, but if we plan, they can be good. These changes are likely to come into play over the next few years rather than immediately, but they are coming.

BABY LOSS AWARENESS WEEK

The 9th-15th October is Baby Loss Awareness Week, which provides an opportunity for the baby loss community and others to come together to honour and remember the babies we have loved and lost. It is also a time to raise awareness of the profound impact of pregnancy and baby loss, the importance of bereavement support, and the ongoing work needed to improve pregnancy outcomes and save babies' lives.

Here at St Edmund's Church, we have a special Remembrance Tree on the altar where you are invited to add a ribbon with your baby's name. Locally, Beckenham Crematorium will hold a remembrance service called 'Remember Our Babies Ribbon Service' on Wednesday 15th October at 6.30pm in the Chapel.

CHRISTMAS SHOEBOX APPEAL

Unbelievable but it is Christmas shoebox time of year again!

Leaflets for this year's appeal are at the back of church; it would be wonderful if you could fill a box for our St Edmund's Blythswood appeal this year. Once again, all the boxes we collect will be distributed in Kosovo.

There is more information about the 2025 shoebox appeal and videos of last year's boxes being distributed on Blythswood's website <https://blythswood.org/shoeboxappeal/>

If you can share details about the shoebox collection with family and friends to help us collect as many boxes as possible, we would be very grateful.

It is easy to choose gifts for people who have so little. Shampoo, a pair of socks, a notepad, a small toy, a bag of sweets – things we take for granted are luxuries to people living in poverty.

By filling a shoebox with simple things you can bring hope this Christmas.

This year please bring your filled boxes to the Parish Office – boxes can be dropped off until Sunday 2nd November.

If you have any questions, then do get in touch.

Sunday 5 October 2025 Yr C

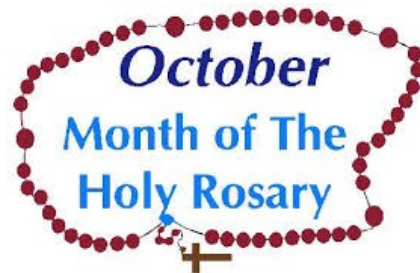

Please return your CAFOD envelope
this weekend

"If we do not plan, we plan to fail." About twenty years ago I worked for a headteacher who would say this very often to students to encourage them to draw up a "revision plan" before their exams. I am sure, however, that it applies to many other things. We can never know what the future will hold, both good and bad, and there will always be surprises, but we can be prepared and so look forward without worry and anxiety. The Archbishop is asking us to prepare for the future at a deanery level, so we can weather the challenges that are coming. You will recall the "Called to Bear Fruit" booklets and consultation a little while back, and many of you were gracious enough to give your time to give your thoughts about the future.

You will also recall that in July and August we were supposed to have a supply priest from Nigeria. He never arrived due to difficulties and delays obtaining a visa, as I understand it. This reflects a significant tightening due to the present political climate. Since Brexit the visa regime applies equally to priests from the European Union who have to go through exactly the same process and expense, whereas previously they didn't even need to apply for a visa and could help out here for the summer and improve their English at the same time. And there is the not so little issue of expense: to have a supply priest for just two months would have cost us over £3,000 for visa fees, air fares, etc. It is a burden small parishes cannot afford.

Given the twin problems of visas and the cost, the Archbishop has decided that next year the archdiocese will not go down the route of trying to get short term supply priests to cover for priests' holidays. Quite simply weekday masses will need to be cancelled while the parish priest is away, and perhaps at weekends. While a priest is away, it may be that the number of masses will have to be temporarily reduced: if parish A and B both have a Saturday evening mass at 6 pm and are just a bus ride apart, it would seem logical, if the parish priest at church A is away, that his parishioners will have either to attend a Sunday mass at another time or go to church B for their usual 6 pm time slot. You might think that St Edmund's has a number of priests so that there will be no impact here, but this is not the case. As dean, Fr. Steve will be spending quite a bit of time and effort organising the local clergy to coordinate when they go away so we can all manage, and it is likely that the priests at St Edmund's will have to cover Sunday masses elsewhere. There is no need to panic, we just need to plan for the future. This might not seem so relevant to you, but it seems to me that we have to keep you in the loop about what is going on.

Fr. Andrew

We have been blown away by the generosity of this Parish!

The donations of cakes were astonishing and the donations of money very heart warming. Thank you to all who attended on Saturday morning.

Thankfully, there were enough lovely cakes, to offer to those who attended Mass for the Sick on Saturday afternoon, Sunday morning Teas and Coffees and Monday's Mother and Toddler group as well. In response, everyone was very generous with donations.

A big thank you also goes to the hospitality group for their tireless help and support on that busy Saturday and to the other groups who supported us on Sunday and Monday.

We are delighted to announce we managed to raise £385.65 for Macmillan.

THE 9.30 FAMILY MASS MEETING HOPE AND HEALING

Last Tuesday evening a meeting was held in the parish hall for all the attendees of the 9.30 Sunday morning Mass. It was an opportunity to find ways of improving how we accommodate and best serve those who come, especially parents and their young children.

This meeting had resulted from a particularly noisy Mass on Sunday 7th, followed by both an item in the following Sunday's newsletter - which some parents took exception to - and a homily by me addressing the issue. There were also numerous discussions and emails over the following week, with opinions clearly divided.

I was therefore immensely appreciative to all those who came and participated in the meeting. Everyone was given the opportunity to express their point of view and to listen to others. Considering how some people's feelings were raw and emotions high, I felt the meeting was conducted in a spirit of Christian charity and benevolence that I felt both humbled and encouraged by it.

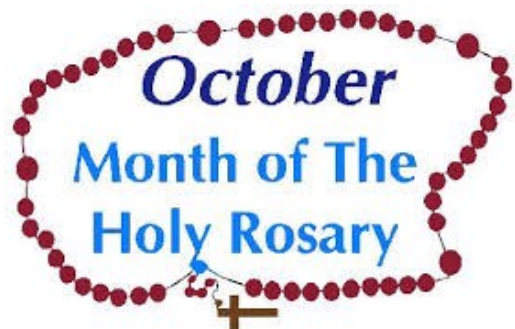

I would like to express my gratitude to Ruth McConkey for chairing the meeting so sensitively and Emma Carlile for her dedicated note taking at the meeting, (not any easy task considering the poor acoustics in the hall) and thank you to everyone who attended and participated in the meeting. I am grateful to everyone who shared their views and gave their time to help us think about how to move forwards. We will be sharing a summary of what we heard and the next steps shortly.

Last Wednesday I attended the Hope and Healing service at our Cathedral, St Georges, for those harmed and affected in any way by abuse. Archbishop John Wilson, Canon John Diver, the Episcopal Vicar for Safeguarding and Karen Troullides, the Faith Liaison Officer based at Lewisham were present along with fifty clergy and lay members.

What unfolded over the following hour was a beautiful and sensitive liturgy of readings, prayers and music, a reflection and the lighting of candles. It was a moving testimony of faith and hope.

Earlier in the evening in the middle of work and with much to do I asked myself, 'Shall I go to the Cathedral, can I afford the time?' Later that evening I came away from St Georges absolutely certain it was time well spent.

THE IMPORTANCE AND THE BENEFIT OF EUCHARISTIC ADORATION IN OUR CHRISTIAN LIVES

The late and renowned priest of the Diocese of Rome, Father Gabriele Amorth, wrote some striking phrases related to Eucharistic Adoration. These words reveal the extraordinary power of being in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament.

Below, I share with you several of these phrases:

- "He is there, hidden in that white bread! But He is not hidden from us; we see Him, and His light burns us. It is like a fire that we cannot put out!"
- "That piece of bread is not just bread. It is He, the same one who threw us out of heaven! We hate Him, but we cannot get close to Him!"
- "If humans knew who is really there, the whole world would kneel and we would be defeated forever!"
- "Every minute spent before Him takes away our strength. He forces us to flee like cowards!"
- "That place where they adore Him is full of angels. We cannot enter there even with our traps!"
- "When they worship Him, He strengthens their souls and destroys everything we have done in their lives."
- "One hour before Him takes away from us the souls we had trapped for years. It is like a great war against us, and we always lose it!"
- "The Holy Hour fills their homes and families with light. We cannot bear that light, it blinds us!"
- "When they do the Holy Hour for sinners, they receive His mercy and our chains are broken. It is a condemnation for us!"
- "Those hours of silence before Him are like a hammer hitting our heads. We cannot resist it!"
- "When they look at Him, they say nothing, but He acts in their hearts. It destroys us from within!"
- "Silence before Him is more powerful than a thousand words. He fills them with grace and makes them invincible!"
- "Every moment of adoration offered by the souls in purgatory frees them. Those acts are like swords that cut our chains!"
- "The souls He frees take away ground from us, and we cannot regain it!"
- "Stop those reparative worships! Every act before Him destroys what we have built with so much effort."

- "Reparative worship is poison for us. It is as if you destroy everything we do in your souls!"
- "When you make amends for blasphemies and sacrileges, you weaken us more than you can imagine."
- "Those who spend time before Him are protected! It is as if they build a barrier of fire around them. We cannot reach them easily!"
- "Every time one of you looks at Him with faith, we receive a punishment that hurts us more than a thousand chains."
- "When someone worships Him with all their heart, He snatches away what is ours. He humiliates us every time!"
- "Those prayers before the Blessed Sacrament for sinners are our ruin. They receive His mercy and repent, and that destroys our traps!"
- "When they pray for the lost before Him, He shows them His love and breaks our chains. It is a disaster for us!"
- "Adoration for sinners leaves us powerless over them. He covers them with His blood, and we can no longer touch them!"
- "It burns us, it burns us! That light that radiates from the Blessed Sacrament is like a fire that never goes out."
- "He is alive there, and we cannot bear it. His gaze destroys us."
- "The souls that consecrate themselves to Adoration are like swords that pierce us. We cannot overcome them!"
- "Those small groups that adore Him are more powerful than entire armies of our own."
- "One hour with Him is worth more than thousands of prayers that do not include His presence."
- "Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament is like a rain that puts out the fires we have lit in the world."
- "These acts of worship bring peace to the earth."

If adoration of our Lord Jesus Christ in the most Holy Sacrament of the altar brings us such great benefits and protection from the devil, why don't we as members of this church community treasure, love and participate in it regularly as a way of saving our souls! Ponder about it,

Fr Boniface Arapa

In last week's newsletter and my homily last Sunday I wrote and spoke about the noise level at Masses and in particular at the 9.30. My intention was simply to address the issue as I had received both criticism and support. I hope I have replied to all who contacted me. I would like to reiterate that there was no intention to cause any hurt or offence.

We now need to look at the way forward so I would like to propose a meeting in the parish hall on Tuesday 23rd September at 7.00pm for those who attend the 9.30 Mass. I hope we can work together and agree the best way to support all our parishioners and especially the families of young children. I look forward to discussing this with you on Tuesday.

Fr Steve

FOLK CHOIR

We'd like to thank everyone; current and past members and friends, for making 5:30 Mass last Sunday such a success. It felt like a wonderful celebration of the choir and a testament to how much it means to the parish. A special thank you also to Cathy and her team who helped make the gathering in the hall after Mass so special, it was lovely to see so many people there. We hope to be contributing to the liturgy for many years to come.

WALK TO ST EDITH'S WELL.

With fellow pilgrims from St. Thomas' Church in Sevenoaks, and joined by walkers from the Jubilee Pilgrimage to Aylesford Priory in June, together with folk from other parishes, we set off in cheerful spirits. Despite the grey skies and threat of rain, we arrived at Kemsing with new friendships formed and old ones rekindled.

At the Well, Fr. Peter led the prayers and devotions in honour of St. Edith and our intentions were offered for our parish communities.

CHRIST'S TRIUMPH OF THE CROSS

It is often said that what we fear is not death, but dying, and it was no different for Jesus. The closer Jesus came to his own death, a death that he knew would be one of appalling, cruel torture, the more the horror of what he would have to undergo began to undermine his resolve.

It was while he prayed in the Garden of Gethsemane that his agony truly began, culminating in the cry, 'May this cup be taken away from me!' He even knew that he had it in his power to escape from those who were on their way to arrest him. All it would take would be to do as his ancestor, King David, had done, many centuries earlier, when he had fled from Jerusalem to escape the army of his rebellious son, Absalom: to carry on up the Mount of Olives and escape from there into the seclusion and safety of the wilderness beyond.

So great was his consternation as he awaited his Father's answer that, as Luke tells us, Jesus sweated blood. This is a rare phenomenon, but it does sometimes happen – its technical name is 'haematohidrosis'. Around the sweat glands there are delicate networks of very fine blood vessels, and under the pressure of great stress these blood vessels constrict. Then, as the anxiety passes, the blood vessels dilate and rupture, the blood passes into the sweat glands, and out through the skin. We should notice that detail: the blood is squeezed out once the anxiety has passed. With his Father's help in response to his prayer, by the time he is sweating blood Jesus has already triumphed over his fear of what will befall him: his agony has passed because he has completely accepted his Father's will. This is the beginning of Christ's triumph, and it is surely a source of deep consolation to us to know that, in his love for us, and for his Father, he went willingly, and with total readiness, to his death, enduring his final hours of insult, humiliation and pain in a state of utter inner peace. There, in the Garden of Gethsemane, the battle had already been won.

Deacon Seán

BEHAVIOUR AT MASS

Everyone is most welcome to attend and participate in the Mass and we are blessed here at St Edmund's to have five Sunday Masses.

To see young families at these Masses is very inspiring and fills me with hope for the future. However, I feel I must address an issue which has been a problem for a while and was particularly noticeable at last Sunday's 9.30 Mass.

There were one or two children who were clearly in some distress and crying very loudly so that many of the congregation were greatly distracted: they couldn't concentrate on their prayers or what Fr Boniface was saying.

When children become too boisterous or agitated it is the duty of the parents to take control of the situation and remove their child to a place where he or she cannot be a distraction and hopefully be happier in themselves.

Please take your child to the narthex till they quieten down - you can hear the Mass there, and can return when your child is calm.

Children must not be allowed to run around in the church. This is a safety issue in a crowded church and is completely unacceptable. Children should sit with their parent at all times.

Fr Steve

MAUDE HERRING RIP

Maude Herring was a well-known and respected parishioner of St Edmund's for most of her long life. She died peacefully this week having spent a couple of weeks in a care home following a fall in which she fractured her hip. Maude was 103.

Maude worked for many years as school secretary at Bishop Challoner School, retiring in 1985, and was an active member of the CWL, where she was a strict treasurer but also famous for her catering skills. She and her friend Joan Harvey undertook most of the catering for parish events of which there were many, in addition to producing impressive quantities of home-made cakes and jam for the Christmas Fair.

Maude was awarded the Benemerenti Medal which is bestowed by the Pope in recognition of service to the Catholic Church

She was a great character and still remembered by many of us at St. Edmund's.'

May she rest in peace and rise in glory.

Our retiring collection next weekend is for the SVP

WELCOME TO FR BONIFACE

Dear Fathers Steve, Andrew, and the Christian community of St Edmund's parish, Beckenham, I am so delighted to be "coming home" again, this time, not for a short term supply but for a long term placement.

My pastoral experience in the parish in 2018 remains forever in my mind, and St Edmunds remains indeed my second home. The hospitality, the family spirit and the generosity of the community that I experienced then, gives me the confidence that I shall live a good life in the community even now that I shall be with you. I am very much looking forward to sharing my pastor experience in Uganda with you, at the same time eager to learn from you.

I very strongly believe that when we co-operate and work together, we shall build the kingdom of God amidst us. May His will be done.

Thank you,

Fr Boniface Arapa

Please welcome Fr Boniface to St Edmund's, and introduce yourself to him if you have the opportunity.

FR JOHN OLANIRAN

It was only four months ago when Fr Sunith, the parish priest of St Anthony of Padua died, that our own Fr John was sent there to console a grieving parish and to hold the fort before a new priest was appointed.

At that time we didn't know that Fr John would not return to us, but in days he will begin a permanent placement as Parish Administrator of Westerham and Biggin Hill parishes.

Fr John was at St Edmund's for three years and we would like to mark his ministry here with a financial gift. There are envelopes at the back of the church which can be put in the collection basket or handed in to the Office, or you can make your gift using the QR code.

Thank you so much.

300 CLUB

Some months ago, at the instigation of the 300 Club organiser, we asked parishioners to suggest improvements they would like to see in the Hall.

Many of those who responded suggested a large screen that could show films, the words of hymns, on-line talks etc.

The screen is now in place and if anyone has ideas of how we could use it for parish entertainment, please come forward.

Catechists - it is there for you to use. It is straightforward, but please come in for a demo before you need to use it for the first time.

Thank you to the 300 Club for funding the screen. There are still numbers left so if you want to be part of this club please contact the Office.

FAITH EXPLORERS

The 'Bible In a Year' group was created and run by Annie Williamson who was passionate about the Bible in a Year podcast by Ascension Press and hosted by Fr Mike Schmitz. You can listen for free on the Ascension Press app or the 'Hallow' app.

The group has grown into something more: a supportive and evolving community now to be renamed as 'Faith Explorers'. Initially formed to help each other stay committed to regular Scripture reading, many of us have completed or are soon to complete our journey - and found it life-changing and inspiring. Yet the group continues to seek more, expanding our understanding by exploring faith through theological works, personal reflection, and open discussion.

Faith Explorers is a place where everyone is welcome - no experience necessary, no question too small or too big. Whether you're a Bible In a Year finalist, just beginning your faith journey, or somewhere in between, you'll find listening to others is as valued as sharing your (often) newly discovered insight or revelation.

Come as you are. Share what you're discovering or simply be present. Whether that be wishing to start your own Bible journey, the 'Rosary In a Year', or if you've found your way to other writers such as C.S Lewis, you'll find a space where people support each other, ask honest questions, and explore faith in real, personal ways. We've found this group to be a great place to grow, learn, and deepen our spiritual lives.

Some of our members wish to share their personal testimonies:

I found Bible In a Year a really great experience, Fr Mike and Jeff Cavins have a really clear way to explain the true meaning behind some of the more difficult Bible passages. It was half an hour each day well spent and a great opportunity to do something I would never have done without this podcast."

I have learnt so much about God's nature, that He wills to love us, and redeem us over and over until time itself comes to an end.

I see Faith Explorers as a support group which continues to evolve as we learn more and spread our net wider into theological works. How we each approach this has been fascinating and interesting; it is a great place to ask questions and get some answers. For me, I wanted to read the Bible properly and to start to understand it. What a brilliant podcast series it has been. There are lots of follow-on materials I am finding. It is no exaggeration to say the process has been life changing for me. Thank you."

Come and try us - see if we're right for you. Faith is a journey, and you don't have to walk it alone, and you can walk it at your pace (not just in a year).

"(Bible In a year) Can answer many questions, even some on University Challenge!"

We meet on average every two weeks, usually in the meeting room in the church hall. We will be meeting again after our summer break, on 5 September.

There is no Retiring Collection this week.

"Come away by yourselves to a quiet place and rest a while" (Mk 6:31)

On a number of occasions recently Archbishop John Wilson has stated his belief that our priests should ensure they take their day off each week. He has also said that if Masses need to be cancelled to ensure this happens, then they must.

We know you will understand if this has to happen and we will give as much notice as possible.

Fr Andrew has worked tirelessly to support Fr Steve whilst his health has been impaired and he is finally taking a short break, weekdays only, so he is here at weekends to cover the Masses.

We wish Fr Andrew a very enjoyable break.

A JOURNEY IN FAITH

(Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) 2025/26

The RCIA course is for those who would like to learn more about the Catholic Faith or who are interested in joining the Catholic Church. We also welcome baptised adult Catholics who wish to be confirmed.

We are a friendly team who will support you in relaxed and informal weekly sessions. The course lasts from September until June and those who wish to do so can be received into the Church at Easter.

We use the Sycamore course which is a mix of videos and discussion groups and has been well received by previous enquirers. The course is suitable for people at any level of knowledge about Christianity/Catholicism, so if you think you know very little please turn up anyway.

We do not charge for the course and you are free to leave at any time. It is held on Thursday evenings in St Edmunds Hall (opposite the Church). Our next course begins on 11 September at 7.30 pm.

If you would like more information please contact us at faithhub.28@gmail.com or speak to one of our clergy team.

Mary and Cathy.

THE CATENIANS

The Catenians play an important role in strengthening Catholic communities. We meet once a month and organise various social events throughout the year.

Our focus is on faith, friendship and family and we offer the chance to meet fellow Catholics and their families from Beckenham, Hayes and beyond.

We also give money to good causes. In the last year the Beckenham Catenians have raised over £1,250 for the Priest Training Fund of the Southwark Archdiocese.

If you would like to join our association you can be assured of a warm welcome. For more information please phone Andy Holmes on 07890 008 458 or email acncarriman@ntlworld.com

SVP BECKENHAM HOSTS ART EXHIBITION

On 5 July our local SVP branch hosted art teacher Lucia Boaghe and the works of some of her local artists. This was a free social event for the benefit of our parishioners.

We had parishioners and guests coming in and out of the hall and browsing the many paintings that were on display on three of the four walls of the hall. Not only were there lovely paintings on display for viewing and purchasing, but the art teacher Lucia engaged many willing attendees in a session of still life drawing (bottom left photo).

It was an enjoyable afternoon, with good weather, a relaxed atmosphere, and engaging conversations about the paintings with some of the artists who were present, and some SVP summer raffle ticket sales!

Our local SVP members were on hand as usual serving cups of tea, coffee, and juice with loads of scrumptious cake!

The photos show some of what went on: top left – Art teacher Lucia demonstrating how to draw; bottom left – impromptu artists with their finished still life drawings; middle – SVP members gladly serving refreshments; top right – a cross section of people having refreshments and our SVP member selling raffle tickets at the table; bottom right – some paintings in the background and an artist in conversation with a parishioner.

A Summer Prayer

Long warm days...
 The pace of life slows...
 A time for picnics and rest in the shade...
 Lord, help me to rest awhile in the cooling shade of your presence.
 Slow down my restless heart and fill me with gentle compassion for all your people.

MASS INTENTIONS

We have many parishioners who regularly remember their friends and family at our Masses, but there are many parishioners who may never have requested a Mass intention and are unsure of how to go about it.

It is very straightforward. The Office needs to know the name of the person you wish to be prayed for - just their name will do - or you can give a brief reason why prayers are being requested. You can ask for a weekday Mass or a Sunday Mass, but it helps if you are not date and time specific, unless the date is important (anniversary or birthday) in which case it is necessary to contact the Office well in advance.

A Mass offering (stipend) is always offered when a Mass is requested. The diocese suggests a minimum of £10.00.

Requests can be made to the Office, by email, or by a note through the letter box, and payment can be made by ChurchSuite Donate or cheque or cash.

We will take requests at the door but prefer to receive them in writing, particularly if you are submitting a number of requests.

PLANNED PREVENTATIVE MAINTENANCE AT ST EDMUNDS

We have recently commissioned a Planned Preventative Maintenance (PPM) Report for the church, presbytery and church hall. The report identifies critical and preventative measures required following the surveyor's inspection. As you can imagine the report is far reaching and includes the major work required outside and inside the tower.

We would like to put together a team to oversee and manage the implementation of the advice contained in the report. This role may suit someone with buildings experience, a surveyor, builder, architect. We know St Edmund's parishioners have many talents and would appreciate their input on the upkeep of our beautiful church.

Please speak to one of the priests after Mass or contact the parish office and get involved with the upkeep of your church.

We cannot move forward without help so please, if you have the skills we need, do get in touch.

TEAS & COFFEES ON SUNDAY MORNING

Thank you to the team of parishioners who offer refreshments after 9.30 am Mass each week. Your volunteering gives parishioners the opportunity to socialise and make and maintain friendships and we are so grateful for this.

We look forward to welcoming you back in September.

If anyone would like to join the team and be put on the rota, please let the Office know.

A HEARTFELT THANK YOU

Annie and I would like to thank everyone for the wonderful send off that you gave us last weekend. It was a very emotional day, and we are so grateful for your love, your gifts, and your cards. It was a pleasure to celebrate our 'final' Mass at St Edmunds and to share the joy of renewing our wedding vows in front of our children and so many friends.

We have many happy memories of the last 35 years at St Edmund's, thank you all for being part of our Faith journey.

I will be continuing my diaconal ministry, and Annie will be starting new projects at St Augustine's in Tunbridge Wells, and if you are in the area we would love to see you. My diocesan email address remains the same, so please feel free to keep in touch.

You remain in our prayers, God Bless,

Deacon Ray

CAFOD CAMPAIGN TO CANCEL THE DEBT

In this Jubilee Year CAFOD is working with our sister Caritas organisations around the world to call for urgent action on the global debt crisis. Many of the world's poorest countries are suffering huge debt burdens with devastating effects on ordinary people. Pope Francis spoke about this many times, saying, 'More than a question of generosity, this is a matter of justice.'

There will be an appeal at Masses this weekend asking you to sign the worldwide Church petition on this issue. Please sign the petition on your way into or out of Mass.

LADY CHAPEL

This Monday will be the last gathering before the group breaks for the summer. It will start up again on Monday 6 September

MUSIC, MUSIC, MUSIC

Our three music groups, the 9.30 Choir, the Chorale and the Folk Choir will sing at their respective Masses this weekend and then take a well earned break until 7 September.

Thank you to every one of them. They enrich our Masses and our special celebrations and their presence is rather taken for granted. We shall miss them over the next few weeks.

When they restart in September, each group would welcome new voices. If you are interested let the office know and we will put you in touch with them, or wait until September and introduce yourself after Mass.

MESSAGE FROM THE FOLK CHOIR

Mass on 14 September will be a Celebration and Thanks for 55 years of the Folk Choir. (we missed 50 years due to Lockdown).

We would love to welcome as many former members and supporters as possible.

There will be a reception in the Hall after Mass - all parishioners will be very welcome.

MARRIAGE CARE VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Marriage Care is a Catholic organisation that helps couples form and sustain healthy marriages and provides support in times of relationship difficulty. It has been operating for nearly 80 years and we are keen to try and find more volunteers to help with this important work. There are various ways in which volunteers can become involved, as outlined under the Get Involved section of our website marriagecare.org.uk.

We are currently looking for Marriage Preparation Course Facilitators to prepare couples for the Sacrament of Marriage. Full training is provided for this role, which mostly delivers courses online to couples across the country.

There are other ways of supporting our work too, for example by helping with our communications and administration or being on the reception at our centre in Blackheath for one or two evenings a month.

For more information please email:

volunteer@marriagecare.org.uk or the local centre co-ordinator:

Tony.Lawrence@marriagecare.org.

HAPPY AND SAFE HOLIDAYS

Friday saw schools break up for the summer. We wish all of you a well deserved break. To our wonderful teachers we hope these few weeks bring you rest and renewal.

If you are fortunate enough to be going away please look online for your nearest Catholic church. Many of the smaller ones rely on the summer visitors to keep them afloat.

SUMMER TRAVEL PRAYER

Loving and merciful God, you have commissioned your angels to guide and protect us.

Command them to be with us from our leaving until our return; keep us safe from all injury, accident or malice and sin.

Through Jesus Christ, our Lord,

Author Unknown

THE JUBILEE PRAYER

Father in heaven, may the faith you have given us in your son,
Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom.

May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel.
May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth,
when, with the powers of Evil vanquished,
your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope, a yearning for the treasures of heaven.
May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth.

To you our God, eternally blessed,
be glory and praise for ever.

Amen

UPDATE ON THE LADY CHAPEL

We had a productive meeting this morning (Friday) with a representative from the diocese. He confirmed that any proposals need to be agreed by the diocese and we will be submitting information to them next week.

UPDATE ON FR STEVE

Fr Steve's final surgical procedure was on Wednesday and went well. The recovery process will be the same as for the previous one so he will be unable to say Mass for a while. He is very grateful for all the prayers that are being offered for him.

We are so thankful for the priests who have stepped in and enabled us to celebrate all our Masses at the weekend over the last couple of months.

BUGGY PARK

The weekend when we welcome the Family Mass into the church, could we ask parents to take a look around and see if they could come up with some ideas to make it easier and safer for them to keep their buggies with them whilst they are in church.

Our church was not designed to house push chairs and buggies and we are going to have to re-arrange some things to safely accommodate them within the church. We have people looking at this but would welcome any thoughts from those who come to this Mass. Please let the Office know.

In the meantime we have removed the table in the porch to leave space for parents who are happy to leave their buggies there, but for those that need to bring one into church, could we ask them to keep the fire exits clear and not block the aisles.

MASS ON FRIDAY 11 JULY

On Friday 11 July, we welcome a Pilgrimage of Hope visit by children from St Anthony's School in Dulwich.

Mass that morning will be moved back to 11.00 am, and we hope that many parishioners will come at this time to celebrate Mass with the children.

NEWSLETTER DEADLINE

Could we remind all newsletter contributors that the deadline for items is noon on Wednesday.

75TH ANNIVERSARY CANDLES

To celebrate our 75th anniversary and to raise funds to renovate the Lady Chapel we commissioned some beautiful hand made candles .

These are hand poured, slow burning and long lasting, using only organic ingredients; they are beautifully packaged and would make perfect gifts. They are available from the church shop or the Parish Office at £20.

The young man who made them received all his sacraments at St Edmund's and attended St Mary's School.

The sale of these candles will raise over £2000 which will go to the Lady Chapel Fund.

LAW SURGERY

Law Surgery is this Monday July 7.

Please come to the side door of the Hall at 6.00 pm and you will be seen in turn.

There is no Law Surgery in August

CALLED TO CARE FOR CREATION

Catholics from across the diocese are joining CAFOD at the 'Act Now, Change Forever' mass lobby of Parliament on Wednesday 9 July. This is a chance to live out our faith by urging leaders to act on the climate crisis, which is already affecting the world's poorest communities.

To take part you can register here. To connect with others from our area, email Sarah and Celeste at southwark@cafod.org.uk

RETIRING COLLECTION FOR PETER'S PENCE

UPDATE ON FR STEVE

The procedure that Fr Steve was due to have on 19 June was first re-scheduled for 30 July, and then brought forward to next Wednesday.

Consequently standing to celebrate Mass continues to cause him considerable discomfort. Don't be misled by the apparent ease with which he walks. He has worked hard on this.

This next procedure will mean that he will not be able to celebrate Masses for another fortnight.

We are due to have a visiting priest for July and August but as yet we don't know his arrival date. Until we do we may have to cancel some morning Masses but Fr Steve continues to try to find cover so this doesn't have to happen..

BUGGY PARK

The weekends when we welcome the Family Mass into the church are causing some issues we need to address.

Our church was not designed to house push chairs and buggies and we are going to have to re-arrange some things to safely accommodate them within the church. We have people looking at this but would welcome any thoughts from those who come to this Mass. Please let the Office know.

In the meantime we are removing the table in the porch to leave space for parents who are happy to leave their buggies there, but for those that need to bring one into church, could we ask them to keep the fire exits clear and not block the aisles.

MASSES ON FRIDAY 4 & 11 JULY

Bishop Challoner School will be celebrating its final Mass on the morning of July 4. It will be the very last Mass at the school.

Fr Steve and Fr Andrew will be concelebrating which means that we are unable to have Mass in St Edmund's that morning though there will be an evening Mass in the church at 7.00 pm, preceded at 6.30 by the Rosary.

We know that you will understand the priests need to be with the school that morning and ask you to keep all members of the school community in your prayers.

The following Friday 11 July, we are welcoming a Pilgrimage of Hope visit from children from St Anthony's School in Dulwich. Mass that morning will be moved back to 11.00 am, and we hope that many parishioners will come at this time to celebrate the Mass with the children.

LADY CHAPEL REFURBISHMENT

Thank you to those who came to this meeting. The initial discussion was to consider how the Lady Chapel could be used in the future as this would dictate how it needed to be remodelled. The possible uses are clearly as a chapel dedicated to Our Lady, but also as a space for: baptisms, small weddings, Masses, bible study, confessions, discussion groups, private prayer, Adoration and meditation.

Those present identified enhancements that could be discussed in the future but, the major hurdle will be the different floor levels in the chapel and also the difficulty of access to it as there are steps at the entrance which are also very close to a fire escape.

Before plans are further developed we have applied to the diocesan team responsible for the fabric of our churches to see what they will allow us to do.

We hope to hear from them soon and will call the next meeting then.

SOUTHWARK DIOCESAN PILGRIMAGE TO LOURDES

There are still a few places available on the diocesan pilgrimage to Lourdes from 22 to 29 August this year.

REFURBISHMENT OF THE LADY CHAPEL

Fr Steve recently announced that, as a lasting mark of St Edmund's 75th anniversary, he would like the Lady Chapel to be brought back into use. It needs some re-modelling before this can happen and anyone who is interested is invited to come to the Lady Chapel this Tuesday evening June 24 at 7.00 pm to give their ideas and discuss what could be done. It is hoped that we could form a team to take this work forward.

COME HOLY SPIRIT

Last Saturday some of you took part in the Jubilee Day at Aylesford, and, judging by the positive and joyful feedback I've been receiving it seems that it was great success. I was disappointed at not being able to join you on such a wonderful occasion but nonetheless much buoyed by your reaction.

For anyone who would like to relive the experience or join in it for the first time, there will be a showing of Archbishop John's homily and prayer in the parish hall this Wednesday after the 8.00 pm Mass. I look forward to seeing you there.

On a lighter note, I was delighted to hear you were saved from being drenched throughout the main part of the day. Bearing in mind the forecast for Saturday, it was something of a miracle.

For now, I leave you with part of the Archbishop's prayer which I urge you all to take to your hearts.

Come Holy Spirit, Come fill the hearts of your faithful, and enkindle in them the fire of your love. Send forth your Spirit and we will be created and you will renew the face of the earth, the face of our Archdiocese, the face of our parishes and schools. Renew the face of our hearts.

Come Holy Spirit.

Come Holy Spirit.

Come Holy Spirit.

BISHOP CHALLONER SCHOOL

Many of you will have heard by now that Bishop Challoner School announced this week that it will cease to operate at the end of the summer term, on 4 July.

Their official statement can be read at:

<https://www.bishopchallonerschool.com/news-and-events/latest-news/bishop-challoner-school-statement>

Please keep all those connected with the school in your prayers at this difficult time - pupils and their parents, the teachers and support staff and the many others who support the functioning of this school which was founded by Fr Patrick Byrne, the parish priest of St Edmunds in May 1950.

Being formed in the likeness of Christ, we strive to become a truly Christ centred community, through humble witness, love, compassion and communion.

Having had one leg attended to, Fr Steve will have a procedure on the other on 19 June. As before he has been told he cannot stand to celebrate Mass for two weeks.

Fr Steve has arranged 'cover' for the Sunday Masses in the church, but with many priests away for their summer break he has reluctantly decided that our Family Mass in the Hall will have to be suspended until we are up to full strength.

The next Family Mass will be in church on Sunday 6 July.

SECOND COLLECTION – DAY FOR LIFE

This collection is dedicated to celebrating the Sacredness of Life. This provides funding for the Anscombe Bioethics Centre and to assist in other life related activities supported by the church, usually by means of grants made to support Catholic charities working in the particular field determined by the theme of the year.

PILGRIMAGE TO PENTECOST

There will be a conclusion and sending out of all who have been on our Pilgrimage to Pentecost over the past few weeks, next Wednesday in the Hall. It will also be a celebration of the Aylesford day held for the Archdiocese on the eve of Pentecost.

Whether you were on our coach or couldn't be there, you are invited to hear and experience Archbishop John's homily at the Pentecost Mass and his prayer inviting us to receive the Holy Spirit afresh.

The evening (18 June) will begin with praise and worship at 7.45 pm, followed by Mass at 8.00 pm led by Fr Uduak Abara the parish priest at The Annunciation and St Augustine, Beckenham Hill.

Archbishop John's homily and prayer from Aylesford will be screened straight afterwards so once again we can receive the Holy Spirit so as to be a family of missionary disciples.

The evening will conclude at 9.30 pm with refreshments.
